

Digital Transformation

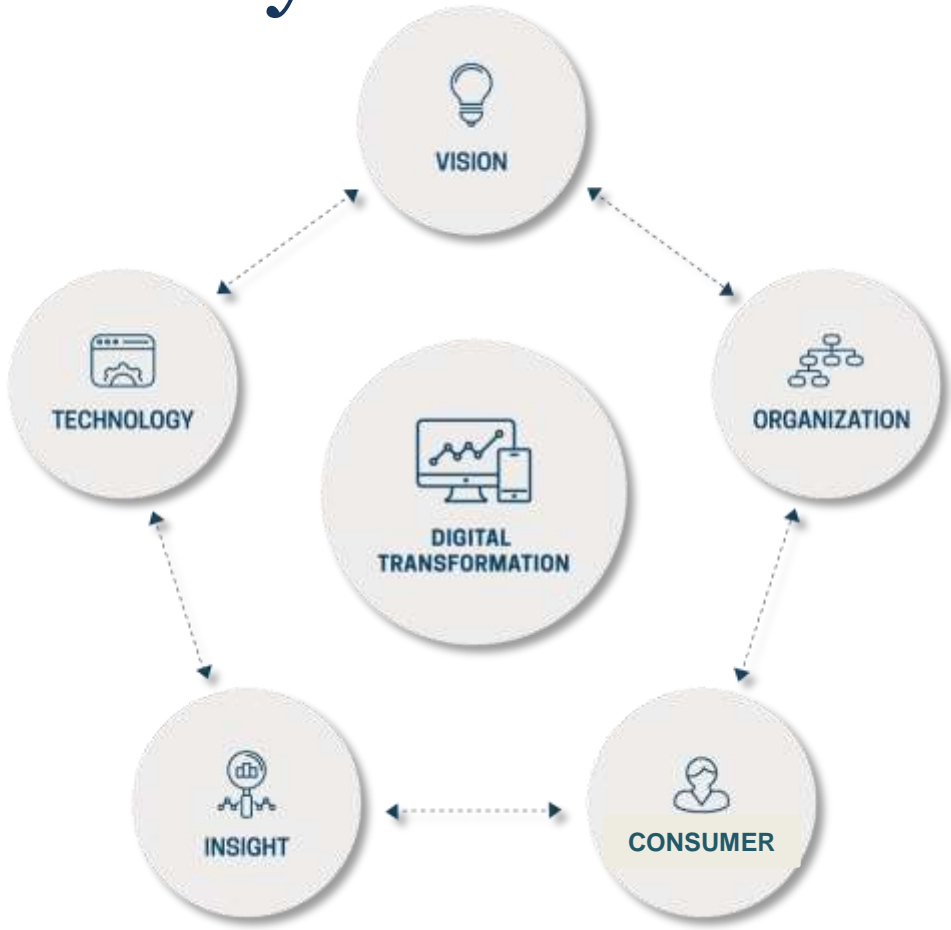

Digital Transformation is the strategic decision to embrace the power of digital technology as integral to the success of every aspect of the enterprise.

Key Elements

Benefits

Improved efficiency & flexibility

Streamlining the process

Improved customer satisfaction

Continuous improvement

Reduced risk

Status of Geospatial Application in MP

- State Spatial Data Policy 2014.
- Establishment of State Spatial Data Infrastructure -
 - Single Spatial data repository
 - Single reference for spatial data
 - Standardization of spatial data
 - Data sharing protocols
 - Creation of seamless, standardized administrative boundaries
 - Collation of existing spatial Data across various government agencies
 - Time series of Ortho-rectified satellite images on various resolutions including complete coverage of Indian satellites
 - Satellite imagery services to various state users
 - DEM for entire state
- Capacity building in government departments.
- Development of Customised web based GIS applications, Mobile apps and Spatial Decision Support Systems for various departments.
- Ready to share/customise applications for other State or Central agencies.

State Spatial Data Infrastructure Implementation Process in MP

